BANGALORE UNIVERSITY

OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR, BANGALORE UNIVERSITY, BANGALORE.

Notification dated 8th September 1973.

No. ACA II G2 FCL. LAW. 318 73 Pt II. In exercise of the powers conferred on it under Section (2) of section (36) of the Bangalore University Act, 1964 (Mysore Act No. 26 of 1964) the Academic Council at its Special Meeting held on 21st and 22nd September, 1972 approved the revised regulations and syllabus pertaining to LL.M. Degree Course as given in the schedule hereto annexed.

The Syndicate at its meeting held on 10th and 11th April, 1973 also approved the revised regulations and syllabus pertaining to LL.M. Degree Course.

By Order,

....., Registrar.

SCHEDULE.

Draft Regulations, Scheme of Examination and Syllabus of LL.M. Course.

I. Course:

A candidate for the Degree of Master of Law shall pursue a course of studies in one of the following subjects:

Branch I	...	Jurisprudence
Branch II	...	Law of Contract including Mercantile Law.
Branch III	...	Constitutional Law and International Law.
Branch IV	...	Industrial Law and Administrative Law.

II. Qualification for Admission/Eligibility for Admission.

1 Candidates for admission to the LL.M Degree Course shall be required to pass the III LL. B/B.L. (Old Scheme) Degree Examination of this University or any other University recognised as equivalent thereto.

2 Students seeking admission to the LL.M. Degre Course are required to produce the marks cards in the original of I LL.B., II LL.B., and III LL.B. (or First Law and B L., Degree Examination, if under the old scheme) and shall also specify the University from which they have passed their Law Examination and claim obtained herein.

3 Applications not giving the above particulars and not producing the said documents will be rejected.

4 The minimum marks required for admission to LL.M. Degree Course of this University is as follows:

(a) 40% in the subject selected for specialisation, and

(b) 40% in the aggregate of the LL.B (i. e. III LL.B. Exam.) or B. L. Degree (Old Scheme) Examination

Explanation for (2)

(i) For the purpose of determining the eligibility for Branch I, the average of the marks obtained in Legal Theory (Jurisprudence and Comparative Law) under the new scheme or Jurisprudence and Roman Law under the old scheme, i. e. B.L. Degree Examination, shall be taken into consideration.

(ii) For the purpose of determing the eligibility for Branch II, the average of the marks obtained in the subject of Contracts I (General Contracts)) and Contracts II ((Contracts I and II) under the old Scheme (B.L.) or Contracts (General Principles and Special Contracts) Under the New Scheme (L.L.B. Examination) shall be taken into consideration,

(iii) For determining the eligibility for Branch, III, the average of the marks obtained in the subjects of Indian Constitution and International Law shall be taken into consideration, both under the Old Scheme and New Scheme.

(iv) For determining the eligibility for Branch IV, the average of marks obtained in the subjects Labour Law and Administrative Law (which may have been chosen as elective or otherwise shall be taken into consideration.

The holders of the B.R. Degree (Old Scheme), may be admitted to LL.M Degree in the Industrial Law and Administrative Law after they appear, pass, and secure previously not less than 45 per cent in the average of marks in the subjects of Industrial Law and Administrative Law, offering these subjects along with III L.L.B. tudents as external candidates of the University.

Provided this Regulation shall not be applicable to the holders of B.L, Degree (Old Scheme) seeking admission to LL.M. Course in Industrial Law and Administrative Law during the academic years 1972-73 and 1973-74, since hey have already been granted the concessi course of joining the LLM Degree in Industril Law and Administrative La and taking the LL.M. Degree Examination only after they have appeared passed, and secured previously not less han 45 per cent of marks in the aggregate in the subjects of Labour Law and Administrative Law by taking the xamination in these two subjects along with the III LL B. students as external candidates of Bangalore University within two years from the date of admission to the LL. M. Degree Course.

Explanation For (b)

So far as the counting the minimum in the aggregate is concerned, the marks obtained in Labour Law and Administrative Law are to be added to the Marks already obtanined in the Old B L. Degree Examination. This applicable only to those who have passed the B.L. Degree Examination, since these two subject viz., Industrial Law and Administrative Law were not included in the curriculm and examination of the Old Scheme i.e. B.L.

III Length of course:

The course of study for the master's degree in law examination shall extend over a period of two academic years.

IV Attendance progress and conduct:

Each year shall be taken as a unit for purposes of calculating attendance, The minimum qualifying attendance shall be ⅔'s of the actual working period.

The student's conduct shall be certified as satisfactory by the head of the Department concerned.

A student who does not satisfy the requirements of attendance and conduct, shall not be allowed to go to the I year Class or permitted to take Degree Examinat on as the case may be.

V. There shall be a public examination at the end of the 2nd year of the Master's Degree

The exanfination shall consist of five papers carrying 100 marks each of 3 hours duration and a dissertaion with 150 marks, bringing the total to 650 marks. The dissertation is to be of fered at the time the candidates take he examination, The dissertation for the purpose of examination shall be treated as a paper.

VI. The LL.M. Degree Examination shall be held in the month of July each year.

VII: Minima for a pass:

No candidate shall be declared to have passed the LL.M. Degree Examination unless

i) he obtains not less than 40% in each paper;

ii) he obtains not less than 50% Marks in the aggregate.

VIII Classification of successful candidates:

The results of the examination will be declared in two classes, namely:—

First Class:—Those who obtain 60% of the aggregate of the whole examination

Second Class:—Those who obtain not less than 50% b

Third Class:—Those who obtain less than 50%

By Order,

.....

Registrar

3—2